

Pub Aux Photo Contest First Quarter 2014

APRIL D. REFIOR | HICKMAN (NE) VOICE NEWS

OUTSIDE PLAYTIME—James Chramosta, of Hickman, enjoys outside playtime at the park with his nephew, Lachlan Messbarger, of Kearney. Playing outside helps kids get their imaginations going, and keeps them healthier than playing video games and watching TV inside..
(FEATURE)

GERRY BAKSYS | VOICE NEWS, HICKMAN, NE

VETERANS DAY KISS—James Brea McClintock, of rural south Lincoln, gives her grandfather, Earl, of Lincoln, a kiss at the end of the Veteran's Day ceremony at the Norris Intermediate school on Monday, November 11.
(FEATURE)

CHERI WIRTHHELE | VOICE NEWS, HICKMAN, NE

HAVING A TALK—Bodhi Jet Chris Wenzl has a “talk” with a Wynot player on a cold, wet, Wednesday in the second round of the Class D2 State Football playoffs in Wynot.
(SPORTS)

Prizes are sponsored by
MyNewsPhotos.com

MYNEWS
PHOTOS.COM

APRIL D. REFIOR | HICKMAN (NE) VOICE NEWS

SPIKE—Kale Wolken, Tecumseh, jumps up to spike the ball at the opposing team during the Smartville Station co-ed sand volleyball tournament on Saturday. There were four teams participating, and cash prizes were given away. A horseshoe tournament was also in play on July 27 in St. Marys. (SPORTS)

GERRY BAKSYS | VOICE NEWS, HICKMAN, NE

F2 TORNADO—Travis Randall, the son of Michael and Joyce Randall, of rural Hickman, surveys the damage on his parent's property. Behind him is where his parent's bedroom once stood, before the F2 tornado. Travis said his father vacated the bedroom minutes before the tornado struck.
(NEWS)

LONNIE HINTON | THE VIENNA TIMES, VIENNA, IL

APARTMENT FIRE—Flames explode out the second story windows of the apartment building in Vienna, IL.
(NEWS)

APRIL D. REFIOR | HICKMAN (NE) VOICE NEWS

CHURCH DEDICATION—Approximately 350 people pose for the 2013 group photo in front of the new addition of the Zion Lutheran Church in rural Pickrell Sunday, Oct. 13, 2013. The original church was built and dedicated in 1918. The bricks for the addition were carefully matched by volunteers to line up with the old bricks on the church.
(NEWS)