First Place, Best Single Ad Idea- Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. less than 10,000. Entry Title: Little Learners Play Care Now Open. Credit(s): Wesley Taylor, Amanda Smith. Judges' Comments: "Love the use of color to create a fun ad that appeals to parents and children."

The Bird Central Wyoming News, Glenrock, WY

Second Place, Best Use of local Photography in Ads, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: Short Supply Advertisement for Feed Store - Using local photograph by staff photographer. Credit(s): Amanda Smith. Judges' Comments: "Beautiful emotion evocation, hearkening back to the old 'Marlboro Country' ads of the sixties & seventies. (I half expected to hear Elmer Bernstein's music playing in the background.) Very nicely done as mostly silhouette giving a 'high plains' feel to the ad. Unfortunately the ad above it distracts from its impact. More judicious page layout would have helped the client."

Brentwood Press, Brentwood, CA

First Place, Best Use of Ad Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 16,000 or more. Entry Title: We'll get you shifting by Vintage Transmissions. Judges' Comments: "Purple moved this ad to first place. Very impressed with the color choice, placement. Good job."

Brentwood Press, Brentwood, CA

First Place, Best Multiple Advertiser Section, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 6,000 or more. Entry Title: Birthday Party Planner. Judges' Comments: "Different and interesting. I like the clean ads with information and unified typography."

Brentwood Press, Brentwood, CA

Honorable Mention, Best Classified Section, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: Brentwood Press Classifieds. Credit(s): Carol Laird. Judges' Comments: "The color headers are very nice, but one wonders if they are reproduced in print as well as they are onscreen. Still, a very nice presentation."

Brentwood Press, Brentwood, CA

Honorable Mention, Best Single Ad Idea- Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 16,000 or more. Entry Title: Man Cave Consignment. Judges' Comments: "50% off an item is phenomenal - wish the name of the business was on the coupon. Logo well done. Nice choices of typestyles."

Brentwood Press, Brentwood, CA

Honorable Mention, Best Use of Ad Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 16,000 or more. Entry Title: Black Friday Sales Event - Bill Brandt Ford. Credit(s): Annie Ray. Judges' Comments: "Another good color ad with color used a bit differently than a lot of car ads."

Central City News, Baton Rouge, LA

Third Place, Best Use of local Photography in Ads, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: Tree Men. Credit(s): Woody Jenkins. Judges' Comments: "Great job showing (rather than telling) exactly what the business offers to their clients. It also helps to establish the eccentric appearance of the owner as someone easily identifiable, and reliable, overcoming a possible negative first-meeting reaction with a client before it happens."

Choteau Acantha, Choteau, MT

Third Place, Best Single Ad Idea- Black & White, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. less than 10,000. Entry Title: Feeling pain at the pump?. Credit(s): Megan Klingaman. Judges' Comments: "Choteau Acantha's 'Feeling Pain at the Pump' addresses pressing needs for more fuel efficiency as gas prices rise."

Choteau Acantha, Choteau, MT

First Place, Best Use of Ad Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. less than 8,000. Entry Title: Laborless Music Fest. Credit(s): Desiree Pettet, Rene Huger. Judges' Comments: "I like the sharpness of the colors - just enough black and white to keep it from being too color-busy; good typography, a lot of information presented in easy to read style."

Cody Enterprise, Cody, WY

Third Place, Best Advertising Idea, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: Not going out of business sale. Judges' Comments: "Cody Enterprise's Not Going Out of Business Sale shows a sense of humor with real value for shoppers as well as the advertiser."

Community Impact Newspaper/Central Austin Edition, Pflugerville, TX

Third Place, Best Use of Ad Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 16,000 or more. Entry Title: Ed's Photo Booth. Credit(s): Cathy Chedrawi. Judges' Comments: "Difficult for me because I am not a fan of white on color type but this one seems to be easy enough to read and has a very pleasing color arrangement."

Honorable Mention, Best Single Ad Idea- Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 16,000 or more. Entry Title: PhoNatic Vietnamese Cuisine. Credit(s): Jason Suarez. Judges' Comments: "Attractive, easy to read. Wish coupon were larger & name of business included in it."

First Place, Best Use of Ad Color, Daily & Non-daily Division, circ. 8,000-15,999. Entry Title: Stanley Subaru. Credit(s): Staff. Judges' Comments: "Great use of fall colors."

The Ellsworth American, Ellsworth, ME

Second Place, Best Classified Section, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: Classified Section. Credit(s): Staff. Judges' Comments: "Nice easy flow. Very easy to read. Lots of color. I do wish you started your first page at the top of the page. Starting in the middle seems to lessen the importance of the section, which given its strength, is disappointing."

The Ellsworth American, Ellsworth, ME

Second Place, Best Advertising Idea, Daily & Non-daily Division. Entry Title: The Best of Cheers - Best Advertising Idea. Credit(s): Staff. Judges' Comments: "Ellsworth American's sale of book on cheap wine by their managing editor shows that newspaper people still have a sense of humor. Any time we can make readers smile, we're doing something good."
