

Fight for Fairness for Newspapers

- In August, the U.S. Postal Service got permission for a special postage deal with Valassis Direct Mail designed to pull advertising out of newspapers.
- This isn't about competition. It is about the government targeting newspapers. It is about our ability to survive and cover the news.
- NNA is fighting back. Will you join us?
- Your gift to NNA's postal fairness fund will support your industry's work for fair competition and reliable newspaper delivery.
